THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO
Harris Public Policy

Typical Registration For MPP/JD with Law School

- Generally students start at Law:
  - Years 1 and 2 in Law
  - Year 3 in residence with Harris (see next slide)
  - Year 4 in residence with Harris 1–2 quarters, in res with law 1–2 quarters
- If student starts at Harris:
  - Yr 1: in residence with Harris, 10 courses (overload in 1 quarter)
  - Yr 2: in residence with Law for 3 quarters
  - Yr 3: in residence with Law for 3 quarters
  - Yr 4: in residence with Harris for 1 quarter (paying tuition to Harris) taking 4 classes total including least 1 Law class, in residence with Law 2 quarters

MPP/JD Third Year Schedule

(if first two years in residence with Law)

AUTUMN	WINTER	SPRING
Microeconomics I PPHA 32300 (option to take advanced PPHA 32310 or PhD level PPHA 44100)	Microeconomics II PPHA 32400 (option to take advanced PPHA 32410 or PhD level PPHA 44200)	ELECTIVE
Statistics For Data Analysis I PPHA 31002 (option to take Math Stat PPHA 31202 or PhD level PPHA 42000)	Statistics for Data Analysis II: Regressions PPHA 31102 (option to take Math Stat PPHA 31302 or PhD level PHA 42100)	ELECTIVE
Analytical Politics I: Strategic Foundations (AP1) PPHA 30800	Analytical Politics II: Policymaking Process (AP2) PPHA 31600 Choose between focus on developing or developed economies	ELECTIVE

THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO
Harris Public Policy

MPP/JD Dual Degree Program with Law School Degree Requirements

- ☐ For the MPP degree, successful completion of 14 graduate-level courses (1400 units of credit) not including any courses with grades of F, I, W, or courses with no reported grade.
- ☐ Completion of the following six core courses with a C- or better:
  - ☐ PPHA 30800 Analytical Politics I: Strategic Foundations
  - ☐ Statistics Sequence I. Choose one of the following:
    - PPHA 31002 Statistics for Data Analysis I
    - PPHA 31202 Advanced Statistics for Data Analysis I
    - Any course in the PhD econometrics sequence (STAT 24400, PPHA 42000, or PPHA 42100)
  - ☐ Statistics Sequence II. Choose one of the following:
    - PPHA 31102 Statistics for Data Analysis II: Regressions
    - PPHA 31302 Advanced Statistics for Data Analysis II
    - Any course in the PhD econometrics sequence (STAT 24400, PPHA 42000, or PPHA 42100)
  - ☐ Analytical Politics II: The Policymaking Process. Choose from one of the following:
    - PPHA 31603 Analytical Politics II: Developing World
    - PPHA 31604 Analytical Politics II: Developed World
  - ☐ Microeconomics Sequence I. Choose one of the following:
    - PPHA 32300 Principles of Microeconomics and Public Policy I
    - PPHA 32310 Advanced Microeconomics for Public Policy I
    - PPHA 44100 Principles of Microeconomics and Public Policy I (PhD sequence)
  - ☐ Microeconomics Sequence II. Choose one of the following:
    - PPHA 32400 Principles of Microeconomics and Public Policy II
    - PPHA 32410 Advanced Microeconomics for Public Policy II
    - PPHA 44200 Principles of Microeconomics and Public Policy II (PhD sequence)
- ☐ Completion of a minimum of 10 Public Policy (PPHA) courses.
- ☐ A cumulative grade point average of 2.7 for all courses used toward the M.P.P. degree, based on a 4.0 scale
- ☐ Completion of the math requirement
  - ☐ Pass algebra exam
  - ☐ Pass calculus exam
- ☐ No more than 2 reading/research courses/independent study/internship
- ☐ No more than 1 course taken pass/fail (core courses cannot be taken pass/fail)