

Harris School of Public Policy, University of Chicago
The Battles Ahead: Domestic and Global Implications of the 2020 US Election
January 15th- February 19th, 2020

Unless otherwise specified, all live sessions include an interactive exercise and time for Q&A. All times are Central Time Zone.

Day 1

Friday, 15th January, 2021

9:00 - 9:05am

Course Overview and Introductions

Marc Farinella (Moderator)

Senior Advisor, Center for Effective Government

Executive Director, Center for Survey Methodology

Harris School of Public Policy

University of Chicago

9:05-10:35am

Live Session 1: What Did The Voters Tell Us on Election Day?

This panel will examine the factors that drove the election outcome and explore the demographic, cultural and political changes underway in the U.S. electorate.

Jeff Horwitt

Sr. Vice President

Hart Research

Co-Director of the Wall Street Journal/ NBC Poll

Whit Ayres

President

North Star Opinion Research

Trevor Tompson

Sr. Vice President, Public Affairs and Media Research

Director, The Associated Press

NORC- Center for Public Affairs Research

University of Chicago

Day 2

Friday, 22nd January, 2021

9:00-10:30am

Live Session 2: What Is The State of American Democracy in 2020-2021?

This panel will examine the health of democracy in the United States. We will consider the question of whether faith in crucial democratic norms and institutions maybe eroding, and, if so, what must be done to restore confidence.

William Howell (Moderator)

*Sidney Stein Professor
in American Politics
Harris School of Public Policy
University of Chicago*

Susan Stokes

*Tiffany and Margaret Blake
Distinguished Service Professor
Director, Chicago Center on Democracy
University of Chicago*

Aziz Huq

*Frank & Bernice J. Greenberg
Professor of Law
University of Chicago*

Anthony Fowler

*Professor
Harris School of Public Policy
University of Chicago*

Day 3

Friday, 29th January, 2021

9:00-10:30am

Live Session 3: The Domestic Issues Landscape in 2021

This panel will address President-Elect Biden's domestic policy agenda and consider what can and can't get done in our closely divided Congress.

Panelists to be announced.

Day 4

Friday, 5th February, 2021

9:00-10:30am

Live Session 4: America's Place in The World in 2021

President Trump upended America's long-standing multi-lateral approach to foreign affairs. This panel will explore where the outgoing administration leaves us today and where the incoming Biden administration might take U.S. foreign policy.

Marc Farinella (Moderator)

*Senior Advisor, Center for Effective Government
Executive Director, Center for Survey Methodology
Harris School of Public Policy
University of Chicago*

Ethan Bueno De Mesquita

*Sidney Stein Professor and Deputy Dean
Harris School of Public Policy
University of Chicago*

Scott Gehlbach

*Professor
Department of Political Science &
Harris School of Public Policy
University of Chicago*

Dali Yang

William Claude Reavis Professor

University of Chicago

Department of Political Science

Day 5

Friday, 12th February, 2021

9:00-10:30am

Live Session 5: The Social Movements Reshaping America & Its Politics

This session will explore the major social trends reshaping America's political and cultural landscape.

Marc Farinella (Moderator)

Senior Advisor, Center for Effective Government

Executive Director, Center for Survey Methodology

Harris School of Public Policy

University of Chicago

Errin Haines

Editor at Large

The 19th

Kathleen Belew

Assistant Professor of US History

Department of History

University of Chicago

Elisabeth Clemens

William Rainey Harper Distinguished Service Professor

Department of Sociology

University of Chicago

Katrease Stafford

National Race and Ethnicity Writer

The Associated Press

Day 6

Friday, 19th February, 2021

9:00-10:30am

Live Session 6: Threats and Opportunities

We'll talk with two prominent members of Congress- one Democrat and one Republican-- about the mounting challenges confronting our nation and how and whether the U.S. government can respond.

William Howell (Moderator)
Sidney Stein Professor
in American Politics
Harris School of Public Policy
University of Chicago

Mike Quigley*
Member of Congress
Illinois, 5th District

Tom Cole*
Member of Congress
Oklahoma, 4th District

*Tentative Pending Congressional Calendar